A MISSIVE FROM OUR BARON AND BARONESS

Unto the Barony of Nordskogen, the Cantons of Nordleigh and Blachemere, we send these words.

We hope that everyone is thinking about joining us at the 25th Anniversary of Warriors and Warlords running from July 12 through the 15th! There are going to be many favorite activities that will be returning to the event this year. There are also many new changes for the event. Some of the marshal activities will be moving to new locations within the campground and we look forward to seeing how it improves things. Baroness Samia and Baron Geoffrey will be hosting two champion competitions to determine our new Arts and Sciences champion and our Cooking champion. More details about time & location to follow in the upcoming days. There will again be a Baronial group encampment which you are welcome to join us in. We will be moving to a new location more centrally located and planned to be our new permanent location. Contact Baroness Ekaterina if you would like to join us there.

The rest of the year will be filled with many activities for the Barony. We will be hosting a summer/fall moot, Northshield Coronation, Harvest Home, and Toys for Tots tournament.

Everyone have a safe and happy Fourth of July celebration and get those last-minute WW projects completed before the event!

Samia and Geoff

Notes from the Nordskogen Business Meeting, June 20, 2018

Call to order

Officers' Reports

Their Excellencies Nordskogen: Baron Geoffrey of Warwick and Sitt al-Thullaja:

Deadline for Baron and Baroness applications: July 1. Singles are ok. Come to land party weekend, June 30 and July 1. We're battling cleanup. THL Matthias of Rolling Oaks (Moose) is running that weekend. There's lots of WW news in the Nib. Our plans include competitions for the Baronial A&S Champion, the Baronial Cooking Champion and a Baronial and cantons breakfast on Saturday morning. The timing of competitions still not set. We are planning a moot sometime in September and are looking for ideas.

Marshal's Reports

Archery Report

MIC: Duchess Anne Geoffreys of Warwick

Marshal Status: Marshal of the Field

Activities Performed:

Ran the archery activities for Schutzenfest. Did oversight of 29 Marshals and MITs conducting inspections, range setup and take down, Marshaling of the line, and making sure participants, Marshal, and MITs signed appropriate paperwork. Seventy archers participated in fourteen different shoots that were conducted over a three-day period. Had assistance from Marshals and MITs throughout Northshield. It was a good event. Worked with the Thrown Weapons Marshals. We were a little stricter due to the closeness of the two ranges even though they were within required guidelines. We wanted to be extra safe and made sure everyone had a good time.

Any Injuries, Problems, Concerns or Comments (also include any unlisted events):

There were two minor injuries during the event. The first one was a fletch cut from an arrow that was shot during the competition. The injured party was Meistari Sefa Farmansdóttir 's Mother, Rebecca Jensen. The second injury was to Master Viði Hovdestad's hand. It was pinched while taking down a bow rack. Both injuries were minor and did not need additional attention from a medical doctor. All were taken care of by themselves at the event. Rebecca put on a band aid and Viði administered ice.

Thrown Weapons Report

MIC: THL Diarmait mac Dáuid

Marshal Status: Marshal of the Field

Activities Performed And Any Injuries, Problems, Concerns or Comments

No injuries, no problems. Everything went very well. We had 31 participants, including 2 full marshals and a marshal-in-training. Lord Wolfstanus Lightfote, the MIT, helped set up the range, and helped do inspections and helped run the field regularly throughout the day. He did a marvelous job.

Court Report

A Report from the Court of Northshield

Held by Their Dread Stellar Majesties, Yngvar and Luce, on the fifth day of May, AS 53, by the Barony of Nordskogen by the gracious allowance of Rivenwood Tower.

Herald of Record: Katerinka Lvovicha

Heralds: Gevehard von Baden (morning), Katerinka Lvovicha (evening)

Signet: Gwenhwyvar verch Owen ap Morgan

Morning court:

Their Majesties presented the following honors:

Aneka Gretadotter - Baroness of the Court - Promissory in the form of a golden ticket by Gevehard von Baden

Eiric Rycard - Order of the Hand of Tyr - Scroll by Judith of Northwode

Court was suspended to allow the events of the day to proceed.

Evening Court:

Court was re-opened.

Their Majesties invited Geoffrey and Sitt al-Thullaja, protectors of Nordskogen, Nordleigh, and Blachemere, to join them in court.

Their Majesties took oaths of fealty and pledges of service from all present who wished to do so.

Their Excellencies Nordskogen held a small court to announce the winners of the various events of the day.

Marcial de Salas, known for his quick wit and fast feet, was chosen for the Toy Run.

Crispin Fletcher was named the Schützenkönig.

Their Majesties presented the following honors:

Bebhinn Inghean Ui Siodhachain - Award of the Cygnus - Scroll by Geirfold Kolbeinsson

Rebecca of Jararvellir - Award of Arms - Scroll by Marguerite l'Archier (not present)

Tsiznae - Award of Arms - Scroll by Catriona (not present)

Jois Corbet - Order of the Saltire - Scroll by Gwenhwyvar verch Owen ap Morgan

Winifred of Jararvellir - Black Bolt - Scroll by Gevehard von Baden (not present)

Marguerite l'Archier - Black Bolt - Scroll by Kaydian Bladebreaker

Eyja Bassadóttir - Order of Brigits Flame - Scroll by Cinthia Koli and Finnvald Lokisson

Tarien Dane, Arwa al-Jinniyya, and Marilyn Mirabelsdottir were recognized by Their Majesties for their enthusiasm and dedication on the archery line.

There being no further business, this court of Northshield was closed.

Incident Report

There were two minor injuries during the event. The first one was a fletch cut from an arrow that was shot during the competition. The injured party was Meistari Sefa Farmansdóttir's Mother, Rebecca Jensen. The second injury was to Master Viði Hovdestad's hand. It was pinched while taking down a bow rack. Both injuries were minor and did not need additional attention from a medical doctor. All were taken care of by themselves at the event. Rebecca put on a band aid and Viði administered ice.

Other Activities

Classes: (Unfortunately, no one attended any of these classes. Some of them will be taught again, though, at other events.)

9 AM-11 AM: Embroidery Class, taught by THL Rachell Baker

11 AM to Noon: Northshield Songs, taught by Baroness Gaia Aurelia

1:00 PM to 2:00 PM: Prick and Pounce Class, taught by THL Rachell Baker; $5 fee for kits

3:00 PM to 4 PM: Discussion Class on Writing an SCA Resume, taught by THL Rachell Baker

Bard of Nordskogen Competition, coordinated by Eyja deigja Bassadóttir

The Bard of Nordskogen Competition ran on Saturday from after lunch until completion in the Dining Hall. The components of the Competition were:

1. Perform a period piece, or piece in a period style.
2. Compose and perform a piece from a word salad, the vocabulary for which shall be selected on the archery field.
3. Interview with The Baron and Baroness to share your thoughts on the role of the Bard of Nordskogen.

There were three participants: THL Faelan MacMillan (haiku), Larkin (song), and Baron Thomas Bordeaux (song). Their Excellencies Nordskogen chose Baron Thomas to be the next Bard of Nordskogen. An impromptu bardic circle followed the competition.

What went right?

High points were those fourteen archery shoots with seventy participants, plus 31 throwers. Our fabulous cook, Baroness Bebhinn Inghean Ui Siodhachain, fed us superlatively in spite of losing most of her cooking staff at the last minute. Many wonderful folks stepped up to fill in. The site was left in a very clean condition by the many helpers, especially the captains of each cabin. Communication with our hosts, the Girls Scouts Of MN and WI River Valleys, went very well.

What can be improved upon for next time?

The next event steward will need to decide if classes are needed at this event. It worked well this time for the event steward to handle the web site and the volunteer recruitment. The next steward may need to delegate these things. Hopefully, there will not be a major snowstorm less than a month before the event...

WW WEBSITE ISSUES

Hello there! WW website person here. A couple of times this week I have been approached about the website not working. A lot has changed this year with the site especially the backend of it. A lot of the plug-ins we use don't play nice with systems like Facebook and browsers, depending on how they are set up. We are trying to get this fixed. In the meantime, here is the way you should get there. Go straight to the website rather than use any links. As of this year most of the links have been changed. The website is:

“www.warriorsandwarlords.org” You will need to copy and paste it to your browser or just enter it manually. From there follow the appropriate link. Thank you!! The Web Person, Baron Frederick de Froberry

A PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT FROM INFO. POINT:

As many of you probably know, every year Info. Point compiles a directory of Osseo, WI businesses for the site booklet and for the Point. Initially, this information comes from online sources. Then, every entity is called to confirm their hours of operation.

This year, the discrepancies between the hours published online and those during which the business actually operates are greater than ever before!

So, please, if you've haven't gotten this info. from the site booklet or the Point, call the business first and confirm!

WELCOME INN SCHEDULE

Here is the schedule for the Welcome Inn Pavilion at WW. Please consider stopping by and/or signing up to volunteer on the WW website. Please note that the Welcome Inn also houses the medical device charging station.

Friday: The Welcome Inn is open 10 am-6 pm, newcomers and those attending their first event especially encouraged to visit.

6-7:30 pm: Round table and chatelaine meeting focused on recruiting with barriers in place (meeting open to all current, former, and possible future chatelaines).

Presented by: THL Eysteinn meinfretr (called William) and THL Kate de Mallow

Saturday: The Welcome Inn is open 10 am-4 pm, newcomers & those attending their first event especially encouraged to visit.

The following Saturday activities sponsored by the Welcome Inn are being held at the Court Pavilion:

9 am-Noon: Peer Lending Library: 'Check out' a Peer from our library of people to meet and learn about someone you may not have had a chance to get to know. Peers and Populace, you are welcome to come and go as you please.

Noon-1:30 pm: SCA 101: This is a class for new members or those thinking of joining. We will talk about terminology, getting involved, courtly etiquette, 'shiny hats', belts, and peerages.

Presented by: THL Aesa in Bjarndoelska

3-4 pm: Mock Court: Learn about what to expect and what it all means when attending court.

Presented by: Count Yehudah ben Yitzhak

Meet at Gate: Saturday, 1 and 2 pm: Site Tours

Having A Fire In Your Encampment

If you are planning to have a fire in an off-the-ground container, you will need to have a fire extinguisher plus put-out and clean-up plans. To have an in-ground fire, you must have a fire extinguisher, put-out and clean-up plans plus approval by an Autocrat.

A Suggestion For Heraldic Display

Greetings from THL Gerald Loosehelm! I just had another random thought for WW. If you have any pennons, banners, penoncel, flags, shields, or a heraldic display of any type, Please consider displaying it around your camp and along the pathways. The more colorful the better! Just throwing out this as a reminder. Many groups have this type of stuff in storage and half forgotten.

WARRIORS AND WARLORDS XXV NEWS (con.)

ACTIVITIES (con.)

Authentic Encampment Open House, Saturday, Noon-2 PM, All ages

If you've ever been curious about what goes on at the Authentic Encampment, here's your chance to stop by and find out! Classes and other activities will be taking place. so, come and observe or join in!

Early Medieval Beauty Parlor

There will be an early medieval beauty parlor at Warriors and Warlords in Osseo!

Please stop by the display of cosmetics, perfumes and period tools from antiquity to Renaissance, from West to the Far East. The display of Treasures of Trecio is located in Merchants' Row (space kindly provided by Livingston Jewelers). It will be open on Friday (1 pm to 6 pm) and Saturday (11 am to 1 pm and 2 pm to 4 pm).

Everything can be tried (tester strips and wipes will be provided). Full list of ingredients will be available to check for potential allergies. Willing volunteers can have a period makeup makeover.

For the warriors, a bonus, examples of medications used to treat external injuries, chapped skin and burns in early medieval East Asia.

I welcome comments and suggestion on how to improve the display format since it is definitively different from a regular class (a book to write them down will be set up).

Please come and enjoy! --Dúgū Jínán

Family FunFaire, Saturday, Court Pavilion, 1-3pm

Youth of all ages (and their families) are invited to attend the Family FunFaire!

2:45pm: Sing-Along with a Saxon

SPECIAL NOTE FOR FAMILIES: There will be a children's garb swap happening at the Family FunFaire again this year: bring garb that no longer fits and hopefully find garb that does! All Ages!

Garb Consulting Table In The Welcome Inn, Saturday, 9 am-2:30 pm

Need garb ideas? Want a tunic? Uncertain about how to rework a garment to look more authentic for a particular time period or culture? Are you a garb guru and want to share your knowledge? Stop by the Garb Consulting table. We'll have a small library of costuming, art, and textile books, a bibliography of costuming books, photos of Northshielders in their garb, fabric samples, and online sources. Feel free to bring fabric dimensions and your measurements and we'll work out a fabric frugal tunic cutting diagram on graph paper for you. Bring garb by and we'll work to match the style to images in the books or provide advice where to search online. Gurus are more than welcome to stop by and leave your special niche and contact info so those who are interested in the same thing can connect with you. In service, Mistress Annetje van Leuven

BARDIC

A Clarification

Baron Thomas Bordeaux has been called away by a special opportunity and will not be attending WW this year. The (Wrong and) Honorable Master Dahrien Cordell has stepped up to fill in for him.

A Bardic Challenge

Baroness Coquette du Lyons, is sponsoring a Bardic challenge at WW25 to find a Warriors & Warlords theme song of sorts, one that can be sung annually. The three criteria will be: 1: upbeat; 2: singable by mere mortals; 3: has a chorus that encourages the populace to join in. After the Torchlight Tournament on Friday night is over, the Baroness will come to the Bardic circle and the competition will commence at the end of the current performance or perhaps the next after that. Her Majesty has approved of the winner leading us in singing it at Saturday night's Royal Court.

About WW Bardic Circles

When I went to my first WW mumble years ago, I thought the bardic circle was a private party and avoided it. Aaaaand that's how I missed my very first bardic circle. So here is what you can expect at the WW Bardic Circle (the official one; all bets are off for private camp circles):

--Everyone is welcome! Yes, YOU!

--Stay hydrated (and bring your own cup). Singing is work, too. If there is no water left in the orange water cooler, inform the circle host and/or Courtesy Patrol. Bringing/passing around snacks and beverages is appreciated.

--Sounds like the Bardic Area is behind the pole barn on the main road this year. If you don't like it, please don't complain.

--Basic Bardic etiquette: Don't interrupt or talk over someone else's performance. Do sing along (harmony welcome) unless the performer asks that people do not. Feel free to play along with instruments unless the performer asks that people do not. Please do not idly noodle on your instrument as it is unclear sometimes whether you are performing or just noodling. No one except current Royalty is allowed to perform two pieces in a row. 10 pm is the cutoff time between "family friendly" and "adult themes okay".

--If you want to perform and can't figure out how to find a moment to do so, ask the circle host. Sometimes there is a format to the circle and they can inform you of that. Other times it is just "jump in", but the host knows that that's not always easy for people to do and can find a good moment for you/announce you if needed. If you don't know who the circle host is, watch for the person making occasional announcements, or ask others.

--Generally there is no difference between "front row" and "back row" (i.e. one is not for performers vs. observers). If you really, really don't want to get invited to perform, inform the circle host.

--There is someone in charge of fire. Unless invited, please don't assume there isn't and jump in and start playing with the fire. Cooking food is okay as long as you let the fire burn normally (it is usually our only light).

--If you need a flashlight, ask to borrow one, but then return it promptly. In the same vein, control your flashlight so it isn't shining in the eyes of your neighbor or someone across the circle.

--If you need a song sheet, ask. If you take a song sheet, and you don't want to take it with you when you leave (please do take it with you!), give it back to a person, don't just leave it on a bench. The dew makes them dissolve and they do cost money to produce.

--Re: Dew: sitting on the ground can get wet late at night. Bring something to sit on. There are benches, though these go on walkabout during the Bad Baroness/Torchlight Tourney and Saturday night court. Chairs can be left at the circle area during the whole event, but don't forget them when you leave site!

--If you are still there during the wee hours of Saturday night or during pack up on Sunday morning, ask the circle host about helping to take down the benches. Many hands make light work. Please don't do it without asking; there is a technique.

--I think that's everything! If something is confusing or you feel slighted or upset by something that happens at the Bardic Circle, please bring it up with the circle host or someone who has a Bardic Clue (or me, I'm only a Bardic Laurel, what do I know 😊😄...). Despite the fact that our art happens late at night when we are already tired and might say things without thinking, we really do want to make the Bardic Circle welcoming and cozy for all!

Mistress Eliane Halevy (Not in charge of bardic at WW this year, but I have been in the past.)

CAMPING

Authentic Encampment At WW

If you are interested in camping with the Authentic Encampment, please PM Jean Kveberg with: your names, your tent style/period, your tent(s) footprint, and your expected arrival date. Thanks! --Eithni ingen Talorgain

Nordskogen Encampment At WW

Greetings Nordskogen! For those that do not know me, my name is Baroness Ekaterina Anastaseva...aka Ekat. I've been in the SCA for 21 years and have lived in Nordskogen all my life. WW is in a week, and I am helping with the Nordskogen encampment at WW. Nordskogen will be camping where they were two years ago and will share a border with the Gnome World encampment. If you plan to camp with Nordskogen, please answer the following questions: What is/are your name(s)? Either modern or SCA is fine. What day are you arriving? Morning, midday, or evening? What is the footprint of your pavilion or tent? Please email me at: jenakaekat@hotmail.com with your reply. Please feel free to ask questions. YIS, Ekaterina

CLASS ANNOUNCEMENTS AND INVITATIONS

Aiglets, Medieval, Post Medieval And Modern, Thurs., 7-8 PM, Court Pavilion, All ages

Greetings from THL Gerald Loosehelm! If you will be on site Thursday evening, I invite you to attend my lecture: "Aiglets Medieval Post Medieval and Modern". This will be a longer version of the presentation I gave at the 5th Annual Symposium on Medieval and Renaissance Studies, hosted by the Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies on the campus of Saint Louis University, in 2017. I am planning about 40 to 45 minutes of lecture time and whatever time it takes for questions afterwards. The class will be at 7 pm Thursday night in the Court Pavilion. There will be a PowerPoint presentation, tools for making aiglets, as well as modern and extant examples to compare.

Course Description: Aiglets, lace tags, chapes, are all terms describing items that are in some way used to finish the end of laces, thongs or cords. Aiglets still are in use today in the 21st century where they are utilitarian as well as decorative elements on laces for shoes, corsets and other clothing. This presentation will look at the history of aiglets, how they were manufactured in the past and how they are manufactured today. Emphasis will be placed on aiglets as they were manufactured and used during the 16th century. (Please be aware that I will be filming this presentation to possibly put on my website.)

Body Language Of The Samurai, Friday, 4-5 PM, Activity Tent, Limit: 20, All ages

I'd like to invite folks to come and attend my class "Body Language of the Samurai" Friday night at 4 pm. Bring your bokken if you wish. Cheers all! --Lord Ronin the Bowleg

Fermenting Class, Friday, 10-11:30 AM, Authentic Encampment, Limit: 10,

Children welcome with adult

A class on fermenting will be taught at WW on Friday morning at 10 am in the Authentic Encampment. There is no charge for the class, BUT you will need to bring supplies: two glass quart jars with either a screw on lid or a piece of cloth with a string/ rubber band to secure it over the jar opening. We will make sauerkraut and apple cider vinegar. Hope you can join me! --Maestra Giovanna di Battista da Firenze

Flint to Flame, Thursday, 7-8 PM, Authentic Encampment, Children welcome with adult

From Sir Hanman Hebenstreit: Attention Forsters! Thursday evening at Warriors and Warlords there will be a class on lighting a candle by flint and steel. Learn the tools and methods for lighting the way while you are away from the hearth. Check the site booklet for more details!

COMPETITIONS AND CHALLENGES (Bardic Challenges Are Listed Under "Bardic" Above)

Brewing Challenge, Friday evening at the Baronial Festival, Court Pavilion

One more week! Don't forget we will be hosting a Brewing Challenge this year at the Warriors and Warlords event, during the Baronial Festival. This is open to all Brewers/Wine Makers/Cordial Makers to showcase your skills and talents.

Judging will take place on Friday evening, and will consist of the main 3 categories (Beer, Wine and Cordials). All entrants will need to submit one bottle for judging. The bottle should include your name/sca name and a list of main ingredients. We would like these submitted by 5 pm on Friday at the Festival (Court Pavilion). Early submissions will be accepted in the Shire of Rockhaven encampment (next to Strawboss).

For those of you not entering the challenge, we will also be hosting a hospitality table during the Baronial Festival on Friday starting at 5 pm. Bring one of your creations (or two) to be shared with the populace! This is also your opportunity to meet some of best brewers and vintners known to Northshield.

All are welcome... and Sampling is permitted!! but, remember to bring your ID's as you must be 21+ years of age to sample beverages. See you at WW! Master Sigeric Unsiker

P.S. WW-2019: We will be hosting a more creative challenge with a list of ODD, STRANGE and some BIZARRE ingredients that you will need to choose from. More info to come.9

Fabulous Challenge—3-5 PM, Saturday, in the Welcome Inn; setup at 2:30 PM

It's a mere week until the Fabulous A&S Challenge at WW. We now have a time and place. Judging (and ooohs and aaaahs) will be on Saturday from 3 to 5 at the Welcome Inn. Just send me (or Genevieve Fisher) a PM with your SCA name and a vague description of your entry so we can make sure to have enough space and time for you. I know we all have something we've made, or something we're working on right now, that is Fabulous: a thing of beauty, a labor of love, something we want to share with other like-minded people. But for some reason we can't bring ourselves to enter it in an A&S competition. Perhaps your fabulous work is from a period with scant archaeological evidence (I so feel you there). Perhaps you know there are some non-period elements but couldn't resist. Or maybe you really really don't like writing documentation. It's OK! Here's your big chance! I suppose you want details. Rules. That sort of thing.

1. Your entry must be Fabulous! It can be anything we'd call an art or science.
2. You must be willing to talk about your entry with some judges, who might ask questions but promise to be nice. Tell us about your research and process and why you made the decisions you did. You can call this "oral documentation" or "show-and-tell", whichever makes it more fun. If you do have written bibliographies, we'd be happy to look at them and use them to help even more people be fabulous.

As added incentive, the Baron and Baroness of Nordskogen will be choosing their next Arts and Sciences Champion from among the entrants from that Barony. Now go forth and produce Fabulous Things! THL Muirenn ingen Fhairchellaig

(Note: tangible, semi-tangible and intangible Fabulous Things are all acceptable, as long as the item can be displayed. Also, I've been asked if your fabulous thing has to be finished. While you are more likely to win with a finished project, it's not a requirement. Art. Science. Fabulous. That's it.)

MARTIAL ACTIVITIES

Archery Shoots

We're a mere week out from WW, which means it's time to shamelessly promote the activities you're running! I would like to invite everyone one to the archery range for the Princess bride shoot Thursday at 4:30pm and the Queen's Guard shoot Saturday at 10:30-1!

If you were at WAC, you'll vaguely recall the Princess Bride shoot, but it will be returning newer and more improved! If you weren't at WAC, come see what you missed! Fabulous prizes and great fun to be had!

If you're not feeling as competitively inclined, the Queens Guard shoot is for you! There will not be a scored tournament at this time, but more of an open range/open house time. There will be plenty of opportunity to ask for assistance, learn something new, and get to know your Archery Queen's Guard members. If you don't normally make it to the range, don't have gear, are out of practice, or have plain never shot before, please come join us! There will be loaner gear!

You may even get the rare opportunity to shoot alongside Queen Luce herself!

YIS, Lady Winifred of Jararvellir (Fred)

Combat Archery, Friday and Saturday

Hello! For those who are curious, the WW battlefield, for at least this coming year, should be good for combat archery for at least some of the scenarios. If you have it and want to use it, we will try to have it on Friday and Saturday in battles that make sense. --Sir Tom Tinnabulum

Duel at Dawn, Taking Place Friday-Sunday

Brothers and Sisters of the blade, who dance the Duello!

It is that time again, and dueling season is upon us. I, Baron Jean-Robert LeMarchand de Sel, am running the Duel at Dawn on the Rapier field again this year.

Those who participate are a small group, and to join their number is to be in rare company. So, without further ado, here are the rules:

The Duel at Dawn is a rapier challenge run over three days starting Friday morning.

When you register at the list you are put into one of two rival "schools": Libro or Spada. You will have an arm band identifying which school you belong to. You may pick a fight with someone of the rival school at any time the list is open. Fights are non-destructive and can happen in the public area as long as there is a marshal present. Report to the list your wins, and you are able to fight the same person more than once but please limit to no more than 3 refights. We suggest finding a reason to pick a fight i.e. "All Spadas are thugs!" "Oh yeah! All Libros are pasty bookworms!" Fight! Fight! Fight! You get the idea.

Saturday morning, the 5 fighters with the most recorded wins will progress. This time you may fight anyone from the pool of 10 regardless whether they belong to your school or not. Fights are destructive, so if you are dealt a moral blow, you are out. Double kills, while unfortunate, are not re-fought and both fighters are removed from the list. Because dueling is illegal, fights should be taken out of public view, possibly with seconds and definitely a marshal. Wins and deaths are reported to the list. FIGHTS DO NOT HAVE TO BE TO THE DEATH! To first blood is fine if both combatants agree. But accidents do happen...

It is suggested you step up your method of picking a fight.

"Do you bite your thumb at us sir!" "I do bite my thumb, sir" etc., etc., dead body in the street. The two fighters with the most wins, or still surviving progress to Sunday.

Sunday is treated like an actual duel. Seconds are named the evening before and negotiate the specifics of the duel. Sunday morning the primaries and secondaries are treated to a full breakfast in a last attempt to make peace before bloodshed. If an agreement is not reached, the group take a short walk to discuss matters of honor and botany. The survivor will receive a small token to go with their bragging rights.

MARTIAL ACTIVITIES (con.)

Rapier

Hello from your WW Rapier MIC, Der Ehrenhaft Herr Baldwin von Trier!

We've got a grand lineup of events on the rapier field for WW 25!

There's an Everyman's tourney, a Grants-and-Higher Tourney, some schoolyard twists on melees, and let's not forget the Baroness' Whim! We'll also have the King's Prowess tourney, as well as a tourney that puts your weapon styles in the hands of the Fates! Looking forward to seeing you all there!

Tavern Brawl at The Lizard Tavern

THL Ahlwin von Hildebrand will be running the tavern brawl this year, so the Thirsty Lizard Tavern will be open for business at 1 pm, Friday, July 13th. Please remember that all gentles will need to enter the establishment with sheathed weapons. Everyone will start the scenarios unarmed until a random (super-secret known only to the marshals) member of either faction draws his weapon.

Youth Boffer

From Lord Tribalki de Gritti: At this year's Warrior & Warlords, we will be doing Youth Boffer on Friday and Saturday from 9 am to 11:30 am. There will be various scenarios and activities including authorizations for youth and adults and more.

Youth Sparring Authorizations

From Master Abelard die Elster: I (and potentially others) will be available on the heavy field on Friday and Saturday morning from 9-11 (at least) for heavy fighters who want to get their Youth Sparring authorization. (A youth sparring authorization allows a heavy fighter to spar with - that is, hit and be hit by - a youth armored combat fighter using boffer weapons. See this missive for more information: <http://northshield.org/Posts/Display.aspx?ID=32025>)

PARTIES

Nighthawks Party, Friday evening after the Bad Baroness Tournament, SE Corner of Loud Camping

Here follows an open invitation to attend the umpteenth-annual Friday night party hosted by the House of the "Nighthawks". If you wish to tarry for a while in the Southeast corner of Loud camping (just look for the glowsticks and torches and listen for the drumming), our house will be providing: open bar (but donations are always accepted), revels, dancing, drumming, more revels, good times, great laughs, and a weather forecast that calls for partly cloudy skies with a chance of revels...

Official start time is after the Bad Baroness Tournament. Last call is at 12:30 A.M. As of 3 A.M., we're not kicking you out, but you can't stay in our encampment!!!

Regardless of how high your Charisma modifier is or how cute, witty, and/or funny you may be, ALL attendees will be carded and marked for the receiving of any happy-revel-sauces...

On behalf of the "Nighthawks" and Yours In Service, Mahir bil Tabla

ROYAL COURTS

There will be two Royal Courts this year at WW. The first will be on Friday at 9 pm on the Rapier field and the second will be at 6 pm on Saturday in the Court Pavilion.

VOLUNTEERING

Volunteering Sign-Ups Are Now Available

Can't find an activity or class that catches your interest? Try volunteering! Some involve some sweat, but those are pretty short duration.

Would you like a ring-side view of the martial activities? Water-bearing earns the gratitude of the participants.

Would you like to meet new people? Info. Tent or the Welcome INN can be great for that.

You loved our showers? Help us take them apart.

Hate raccoons, skunks and other pesky wildlife? Help collect the trash.

Courtesy Patrol helps keep us safe from our own mistakes.

Interested? Go to the <http://warriorsandwarlords.org/> and click the "Volunteers" Tab to see where and when you can help.

Volunteering At Gate

Looking to fill out your time at Warlords and Warriors next week? Then volunteer to help at gate. Must be 18 years old or older and if you are looking to help with the money, you must be a paying member of the SCA.

Sound like fun? Come meet everyone coming onto the site without walking around. All you have to do is sign up at www.warriorsandwarlords.org Click the Volunteers tab and click gate. Open Thursday Noon to 9 pm. Friday 9 am to 9 pm and Saturday 9 am to 3 pm. Come have fun! --THL Dyonisia Buleheued

Volunteering At Info. Point

Please consider signing up for a shift and help Info. Point provide its traditional service of answers and assistance!

No previous experience working in this job is required. So, this is a great job for newcomers and experienced folk alike.

To sign up, you can go to the Volunteers section of the Warriors and Warlords website, find the Info. Point sheet for the appropriate day and pick your shift. We are open Thursday and Friday, 9 am to 6 pm and Saturday, 9 am to 5 pm.

Thanks! –Mistress Rosanore of Redthorn
